

Bequests to New College or New College Boat Club

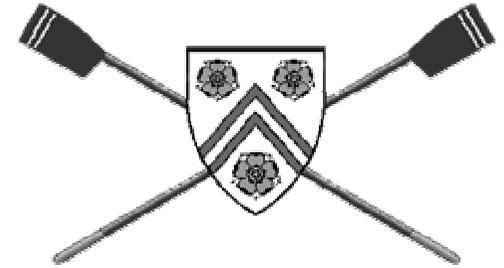

A bequest is a time-honoured way in which succeeding generations have helped the college, and one which has been of immense benefit since our foundation in 1379

If you have already remembered the college or boat club in your will, we hope you will let us know so that we can express our gratitude.

If you are thinking about doing so, we can provide the appropriate wording for a legacy or codicil. If you prefer, you can arrange for New College to benefit from your will only after the death of your spouse or other beneficiary.

Please tick this box if you would like further information.
